Beck, Kristin
UNTITLED BECK #1

May 2024

With Europe tumbling headlong into the Great War, Dr. Elsie Inglis, one of the first female surgeons in Britain, yearns to bring her desperately needed expertise to the battlefields. Told to “go home and sit still,” Elsie does the opposite: she recruits colleagues from across the country and creates the Scottish Women’s Hospitals, staffed entirely by women. The medical workers sail off to where the need is greatest: the epidemic-ridden nation of Serbia. Elsie must steer her nurses and doctors through unthinkable peril, many becoming prisoners of war alongside the patients they’re entrusted to care for, while others provide medical support to countless refugees journeying to freedom. Amid the tumult, the women learn how to fight not just for the lives of others, but also for her own. Kristin Beck lives in the Pacific Northwest with her husband and two children.

A HOUSE LIKE AN ACCORDION

May 2024

Between her husband, daughters and an all-encompassing burnout, Keryth Miller sometimes feels herself fade away. Actual translucence, though—that’s new. When Keryth wakes up one morning, her hand completely gone, she is frantic. But she quickly realizes two things: If she is disappearing, it’s because her father, an artist with the otherworldly ability to literally capture life in his art, is drawing her. And if he’s drawing her, that means he’s still alive. But where has he been for the past twenty-five years, and why is he doing the one thing he always warned her not to? Never draw from life, Keryth. Every line exacts a cost. As Keryth continues to slowly fade away, she retraces what she believes to be her father’s last steps through the many homes in her past, determined to find him before it’s too late and she disappears entirely. Audrey Burges writes novels, humor, short fiction, and essays in Richmond, Virginia.

THE BOOK OF SILVER LININGS

Aug 2023

Constance Sparks says yes when Hayden, her kind but secretive boyfriend, asks her to marry him. While planning their wedding, she struggles with anxiety about the right course for her future. Researching the history of her antique engagement ring, she unearths the name of the man who designed it, plus his tragic love story. When she finds a book in her library's old manuscript section written by the long dead man, Constance is deeply touched by his words and leaves a letter for him confessing her uncertainty and doubts. She's shocked days later to find a response tucked among the pages. As the letters continue to arrive, Constance finds herself quickly falling in love with a ghost and putting her real-life relationship in jeopardy. Will a bond based on letters impossibly sent from the past derail her future? Or will Constance discover her voice and risk everything for the chance to somehow connect with her true soul mate? THE FAIRYTALE LIFE OF DOROTHY GALE

Dec 2023

When her relationship with a faculty member ends in heartbreak and humiliation, graduate student Dorothy "Dee" Gale is caught in a tornado of negative publicity. Unable to face her colleagues—or her former lover—she applies to the writing program at Trinity College Dublin. Dee's journey to Ireland leads her to new companions: seemingly brainless Sam Clery—who dropped out of college and now runs a newsagent's shop—is charming and hot; allegedly heartless Tim Woodman—who stiffly refused to take back his ex-fiancée—seems stuck in his past; and fiercely loyal Reeti Kaur, who longs for the courage to tell her parents she wants to teach underprivileged girls rather than work in the family business. With her friends, Dee finds the confidence to confront her biggest fears. Along the way she learns lessons about making a family, finding a home...and recognizing the power that's been inside her all along. Linden, Rachel
RECIPE FOR A CHARMED LIFE

Jan 2024

In one disastrous night, chef Georgia May loses her sous chef position, her French boyfriend, and her sense of taste! Suddenly, every morsel of food she samples is bitter. Renowned for her exquisite palate and daring use of bold flavors, Georgia is devastated to discover her culinary gift has disappeared. So when she receives a mysterious invitation from her estranged mother, Georgia flees to a small island in the Pacific Northwest where she tentatively reconnects with her mom, a free-spirited hippie eager to make up for her past mistakes. Her neighbor is a surprisingly antagonist (and annoyingly handsome) oyster farmer. The visit has all the makings of a disaster...until Georgia begins to unravel some surprising secrets that make her wonder if the true recipe for a charmed life might look—and taste—very different than she ever imagined. Rachel Linden is a novelist and international aid worker whose adventures in over fifty countries around the globe provide excellent grist for her writing.

PICASSO'S LOVERS

Jan 2024

As a recently graduated art historian and aspiring writer in 1950s New York, Alana Olson was bound to encounter Pablo Picasso, but it was her late Italian mother's particular fascination with him that inspired Alana's doctoral thesis on his work. An assignment for a profile on Picasso from her dream publication leads Alana to intimate interviews with Sara Murphy and Irene Legut—women from a once vibrant social circle that included the artist. Desperate to know the man who influenced so many parts of her life, Alana dives into the glamorous lives of the past. To do so she must contend with her own reality, including a strained engagement and the male-dominated world of art journalism. Jeanne Mackin lives with her husband in upstate New York.

ALL YOU HAVE TO DO IS CALL

Sep 2023

Chicago, early 1970s: Who does a girl call when she needs help? Jane. Veronica, Jane's founder, prides herself on the service she provides, a women's health organization that liberates them from the expectations of society and family. Yet, she must live a double life: when she's not at the service, Veronica appears to be an entirely conventional wife and mother. Two other women in Veronica's neighborhood are grappling with similar disconnects. Deena, a young professor at the University of Chicago, falls in love with a man whose behavior toward his ex-wife increasingly disturbs her. And Patty, who's long been content with her role as a devoted wife and mother, has begun to sense something essential is missing from her life. In this historic moment when the personal was nothing if not political, the stories of Veronica, Deena, and Patty intersect in ways that make them question the very meaning of liberation. KISS ME, MI AMOR: Love & Tacos #2

July 2023

Enrique Montez, smooth-talking heir to the Taco King empire, is man enough to admit that he made a critical error when he underestimated Catalina Flores. As one of the few Latina farm owners, Catalina has no time for romance and she's certainly not about to let the notorious Montez brother anywhere near her business. When Catalina's family mistakes Enrique for her nonexistent boyfriend, she reluctantly agrees to a series of pretend dates to the town's traditional Mexican-American holiday celebrations. Soon the fake feelings turn real and both Catalina and Enrique must convince each other to take a chance on love before their vacation romance is over. Alana Quintana Albertson has written thirty romance novels and danced one thousand rumbas.

THE LADIES REWRITE THE RULES

Jan 2024

Diana Boyle is a twenty-something widow living a quiet life in London when fortune hunters begin arriving on her doorstep, hoping to woo the rich dowager. She is furious to learn they found her using a document called The Bachelor's Directory, which lists the names and addresses of England's wealthy widows. When Diana tracks down the author, Maxwell Dean, and confronts him, they are both surprised (and in Diana's case, appalled) by a shared instant attraction. Max began to fall for the feisty, enchanting Diana the second they met. As the two spend more time together, he falls madly in love. Max knows she will continue to doubt his sincerity...unless he can find a way to prove himself. Suzanne Allain is a screenwriter who lives in Florida with her husband.

WHEN I THINK OF YOU

Apr 2024

Debut novel! Kaliya Wilson has done all she can to keep hope alive while sitting behind the reception desk at a flashy Hollywood studio. It's been seven years since Kaliya's whirlwind romance with Danny Prescott went up in flames. While her passions have stalled, his career is taking off. So when the hot shot director reappears to offer her a spot on his next production, it's a shock to the system. Collaborating with Danny might help Kaliya rediscover the joy of her film school days but denying their past—and very present—chemistry won't be her biggest hurdle. Amid production obstacles and industry politics, Kaliya has to choose what she's willing to risk in order to stand up for what is right—even if it means letting go of the second chance love of a lifetime. Myah Ariel works as chief program officer of a research center for Black media and social justice.

A DEMON'S GUIDE TO WOONG A WITCH

Nov 2023

When Calladia Cunnington saves someone from a demon attack, she's happy to put her magic and rage to good use – until she realizes the man she saved is none other than Astaroth, the ruthless demon who orchestrated a soul bargain on her best friend. Suffering from amnesia after being stripped of his immortality and banished to the mortal plane, Astaroth doesn't know why a demon named Moloch is after him, nor why the muscular, angry, hot-in-a-terrifying-way witch who saved him hates him so much. The two set out on an uneasy road trip to find the witch who might be able to restore Astaroth's memory so they can learn how to defeat Moloch. Calladia vows that once Astaroth is cured, she'll kick his ass, but the more time she spends with the snarky yet utterly charming demon, the more she realizes she likes this new, improved Astaroth and maybe she doesn't want him to recover his memories, after all. A SHORE THING

Apr 2024

A struggling artist finally finds a woman who can make his heart race in this powerful Victorian historical romance. When Kit Griffith moved to the seaside, he left his old friends, and his old life, behind. Even though it involved resigning from the Sisterhood, the society of women artists he'd founded, he was ready to live more fully as himself—though he didn't expect to lose his ability to paint. Muriel Pendrake, a botanist, has come to St. Ives to commission the one artist she believes can illustrate her lecture on British seaweeds. Kit knows he shouldn't accept, but a wager leaves him little choice. With only their hearts as guides, Kit and Muriel must decide if they're willing to race into the unknown for the adventure of a lifetime. Feb 2024

Nora needs a reinvention fast. After discovering at her father's funeral that she and her sister Yanne have lived their entire lives as his secret second family, everything they had is gone. Well, there is one thing—a dilapidated beach house on its way to foreclosure in Maine. She decamps for coastal Maine with her sister, but they haven't even knocked the traveling dust off last season's designer boots when the first problem pops up: a squatter who has claimed their property as his own—and is hotter than the local lobster boil. From the moment Ennis "Bear" Freeman sees these two city sisters, he knows they won't last here. That doesn't mean he can't fix his struggling ecotourism business with the money they supply to revamp the place. As an Indigenous person native to Maine, Ennis has every reason not to trust another outsider claiming land they have no rights to. As they work side by side, he's afraid Nora may be the key to more than just his financial happiness. His best course of action? Stay away. But that's easier said than done... THE BEAUTIFUL AND THE WILD

It's summer in Alaska and the light surrounding the shipping-container-turned-storage-shed where Liv Russo is being held prisoner is fuzzy and grey. Around her is thick forest and serrated mountains. In front of her, across a clearing, is a low-slung cabin with a single window that spills a wash of yellow light onto bare ground. Illuminated in that light is the father of her child, a man she once loved. A man who is now her jailor. Liv vows to do anything to escape.

Carrying her own secrets and a fierce need to protect her young son, Liv navigates a new world where extreme weather, starvation and grizzly bears are not the only threats she faces. She must take a lesson from nature: that in order to live some things must die. Peggy Townsend is an award-winning newspaper reporter who once chased an escaped killer through a graveyard in the middle of the night.

THE LONG NOVEMBER

In the tradition of Red Storm Rising and Red Metal, an American military force fights a desperate battle against an overwhelming enemy. What started as a military coup in Pakistan has ignited South Asia, and threatens to spread to the world's largest democracy in India. American and British allies struggle to rescue western civilians who have been cut off in Islamabad. What starts as a desperate race turns into a grim siege. But the fate of a few innocents pales in comparison to one inescapable fact: Pakistan is a nuclear power and some of those weapons are unaccounted for. VILLAGE IN THE DARK: Detective Cara Kennedy #2

Anchorage Detective Cara Kennedy's husband and son disappeared on a hike a year ago, their bones eventually discovered and buried. Still grieving, Cara is stunned when presented with a clue pointing to a different reality: are they really still alive or is this a cruel hoax--and why? Growing up in an isolated, all-female Alaskan village called Unity, Mia Toovak always knew she wanted to venture out into Man's world. But it's not how she imagined it would be. Men can be pleasant but also difficult and frightening—she'll never forget the man and the boy who died in the woods last year. When Cara's investigation leads her to Mia, unexpected revelations about Mia's job and Cara's family bring great danger for all the inhabitants of Unity. THREE KINDS OF LUCKY: Lucky #1

Petra Grady has known since adolescence that she has no talent for Light magic—and that's never going to change. But as a sweeper first-class, she's parlayed her rare ability to handle dross—the damaging, magical waste generated by her more talented kin's spellwork—into a surprisingly good life working at the mages' university. When the sexy, oblivious Benedict Strom needs someone with her abilities for a research project, she's stuck working on his team. After an unthinkable accident, she and Benedict are forced to go on the run to seek out the one person who might be able to help: an outcast exiled ten years ago for the crime of using dross—not Light—to cast spells. Now Grady must decide whether to stick with the magical status quo or embrace her own hidden talents and risk shattering their entire world.
